

Sue Lunnun

Retired, successful Primary Headteacher for 16 years including the final seven years as an Executive Head. Sue was engaged in a number of National College for School Leadership programmes including being a Consultant Leader on Primary Leadership programmes and an accredited School Improvement Partner. She also worked for four years with a number of local Church schools as a Schools' Support Officer with the Diocese of Norwich. Sue has been involved with the Trust since October 2013, initially as Trustee and Governor and now a Member.