

Martin Sale

Martin Sale is a Barrister who up until his retirement was Chief Executive of the Norfolk Magistrates' Courts Service.

He has served as a Chair of Governors at South Wootton Junior School and as a governor at Springwood High School.

Following his retirement, he was asked by the Norfolk Education Authority to join and support governing bodies in 7 schools facing particular challenges.

He was appointed as a National Leader of Governance by the Department for Education in 2013.

He was chair of the Norfolk Governors' Network for 3 years.

He was awarded the Norfolk School Governors' Award for Outstanding Service in 2011.